Isle of Wight County in the Rev.

Isle of Wight County was one of the first counties of Virginia, perhaps the first to lend aid to one of the sister colonies in distress. Before actual warfare had begun, and Boston's port was under an embargo; this county sent not only a written expression of sympathy and encouragement, but loaded a vessel with corn, and sent it to her compatriots in Boston.

There is no complete list of soldiers who enlisted from this county, but they were numerous. Tarleton destroyed many of the records in his raid in this County. The following names are in the ~~Roll~~ Honor Roll of Isle of Wight County: Col. Josiah Parker, Major Francis Boykin, Captain James Johnson, Col. John S. Wills, Jesse Matthews, James Casey, Edward Ward, Robin Turner, Samuel McCoy, John Forrest, Henry Hill, Ben (Whalebone) Jones and Moses Atkins.

During Tarleton's raid the British were attacked by a body of Isle of Wight Militia, at Scott's Old Field, now known as Exchange, in Nansemond County. The raiders were driven off, being forced across Milner's Creek.

We also understand by Capt. Brown that Humphrey Roberts of Portsmouth a noted Tory has Removed with his family over there and that a Negro fello' named Caesar sent to Will'b'g Yesterday in Custody is a very great Scoundrel and ought not to be discharged untill You hear further about him as we have found out since he went from this he has told many fakeities also that he's a fello' they can't do well without being an Excellent pilot.

Capt.
